Form 990, Part I, Line 1 - Organization Mission or Significant Activities

One Love's mission is to educate young people about the differences between healthy and unhealthy relationships. The Foundation develops compelling in-person and online prevention educational content to help educate, empower, and activate the next generation to learn to love better.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

One Love exists for one reason: Yeardley Love was killed, and her death was preventable if anyone in her life understood the warning signs of an unhealthy and increasingly dangerous relationship. This realization is the driving force behind our work to educate young people about relationship abuse and rally them in a campaign that empowers them to change the statistics. One Love started in 2010 out of a family's wish to honor their daughter and expanded in 2015 into a national educational campaign to improve young people's understanding of healthy versus unhealthy relationships. Using emotionally compelling content, and a peer-led workshop model, One Love has reached millions of young people, teaching them how to recognize signs of abuse, and providing them with the language and tools required to navigate their relationships. One Love is the national leader in relationship health education, reaching over 1.8 million young people through educational workshops and training 37,000 volunteer facilitators to lead One Love workshops in their communities. One Love's digital campaigns have had over 100 million views online. As One Love continues to scale, engaging even more young people as leaders of this work, the organization is focused on ensuring campaigns reflects the perspectives and interests of all who are impacted by this issue. Working closely with individuals at schools and colleges, youth-facing organizations, and domestic violence advocates across the country, One Love will reach more people and engage more voices to change relationship abuse statistics.
